Father LeRoy

Dedication

It was only this past September that he left us. From the opening of Bishop Bourgade High School, Father Fox was here. He was the handy man, the smiling friend, the clever photographer, the ANCHOR moderator, the understanding teacher, the kind administrator, the fatherly priest. Yes, this was our Father Fox: the man we came to love; the man we had to admire; the man we cannot forget; the man we want to thank. To him, Father LeRoy X. Fox, S.M., we gratefully dedicate the 1967 ANCHOR for all he has been to us.

Alma Mater

In the Valley of the Sun
Stands our Alma Mater dear;
Like the Phoenix she has come
From sacrifices dear.

An oasis on the vast scene,
Sign of hope, young souls she will glean.
She teaches love of God and of land in unity;
So hail, Bourgade and Mary Queen!
All hail our dual love;
All hail our dual love!

Foreword

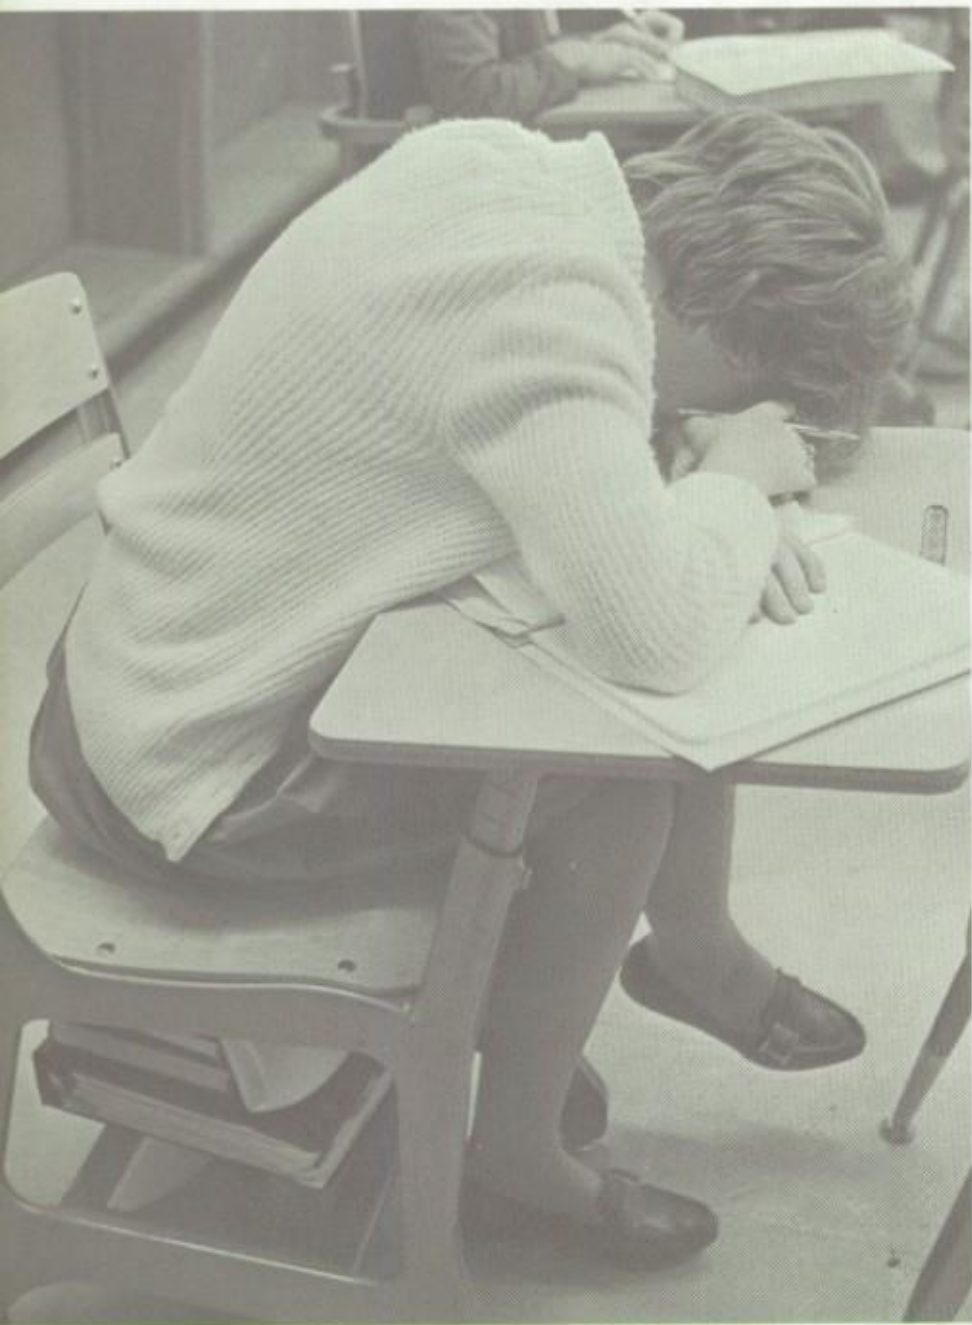

BISHOP BOURGADE HIGH SCHOOL

Only with the entire name of our high school, Bishop Bourgade High School, does the message ring clear: our school was named to perpetuate and to honor the name of the Most Reverend Peter Bourgade, Titular Bishop of Thaumacus, first Bishop of Tucson.

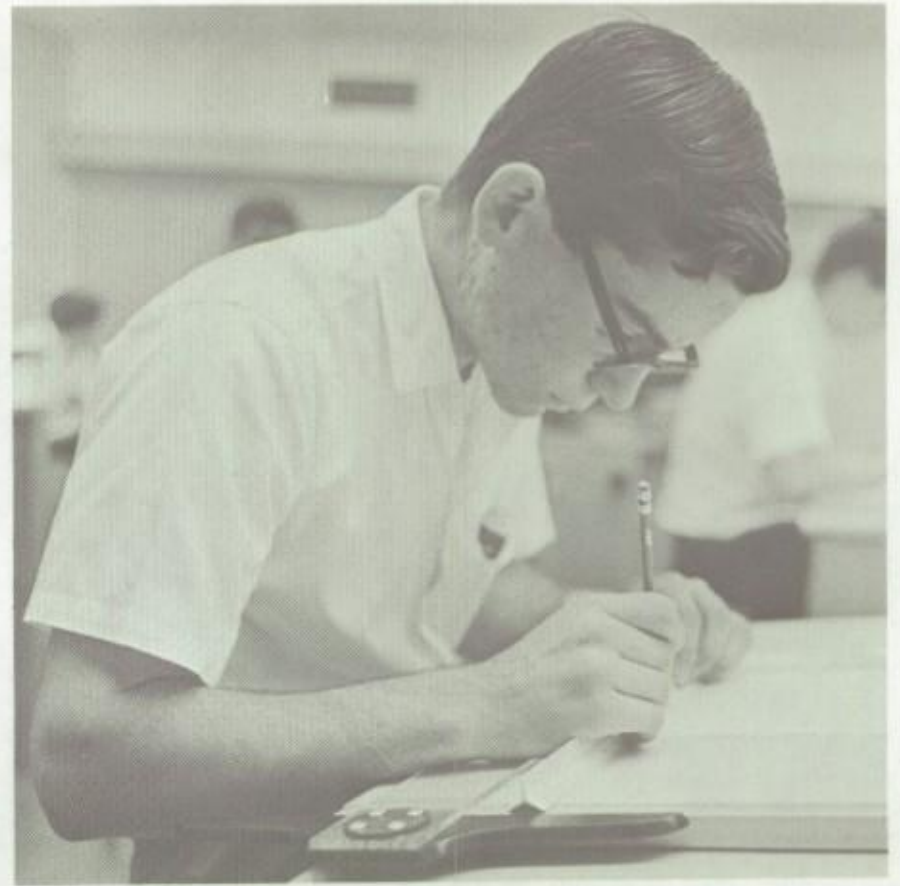

History tells us that Peter Bourgade was born on October 17, 1845, in Sainte-Agatha, Puy-de-Dome, France. He received his higher education at the College of Billon, France; and that he was ordained to the priesthood on November 30, 1869, by Bishop Lamy in Santa Fe, New Mexico. On February 7, 1885, Pope Leo XIII elected Father Peter Bourgade to the titular see of Thaumacus and appointed him vicar apostolic of Arizona. Two years later he was transferred to the newly erected see of Tucson. Again, after two years, he was promoted to the Metropolitan see of Santa Fe, where he worked until his death on May 17, 1908.

This is the man we honor; this is why we wish to perpetuate his name. He is, then, our helmsman. To him we raise our voices in prayer that our school be a living Bishop Bourgade, reflected in the Christian lives of all who dwell herein.

Blue Angels fly above "to demonstrate precision techniques of Naval Aviation to Naval Personnel, and, as directed, to the public.

Blue Angels work below to demonstrate precision techniques of Christian living to the Christian community, and, as directed, to the world at large.

Hours of grueling "practice, co-ordinating, and more practice" are needed to execute such precision formations.

Hours, days, years of training are required to execute Christ into our lives; and so learning, practicing, and co-ordinating are needed.

Blue Angels are "Ambassadors of Good Will" for the Navy.

Blue Angels must be "Ambassadors of Good Will" for God.

We, the Blue Angels who work below, wish to thank those who fly above.

CAMPUS LIFE

SESQUICENTENNIAL

During the Mass, Father Hillman delivered the Homily.

The Mass celebrating the 150th anniversary foundation of the Marist Order was concelebrated by all the Marist Fathers.

The gift of the Senior Class to the Marists in honor of their Sesquicentennial celebration was a living rosary.

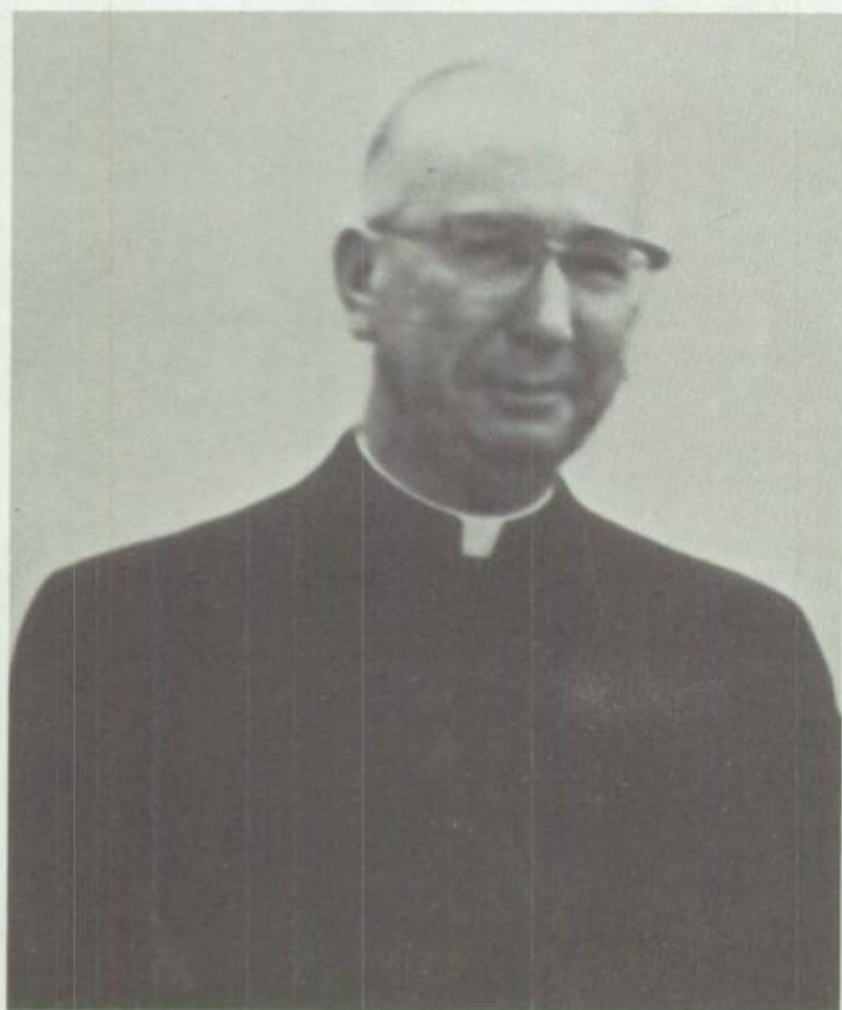

With the Blessing, the Marist Fathers invoked God's blessing on their future success.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS

Rev. Mother Loretto Julia and Sister Marie Chantal of the Sisters of Notre Dame.

Most Reverend Joseph Buckley of the Marist Fathers.

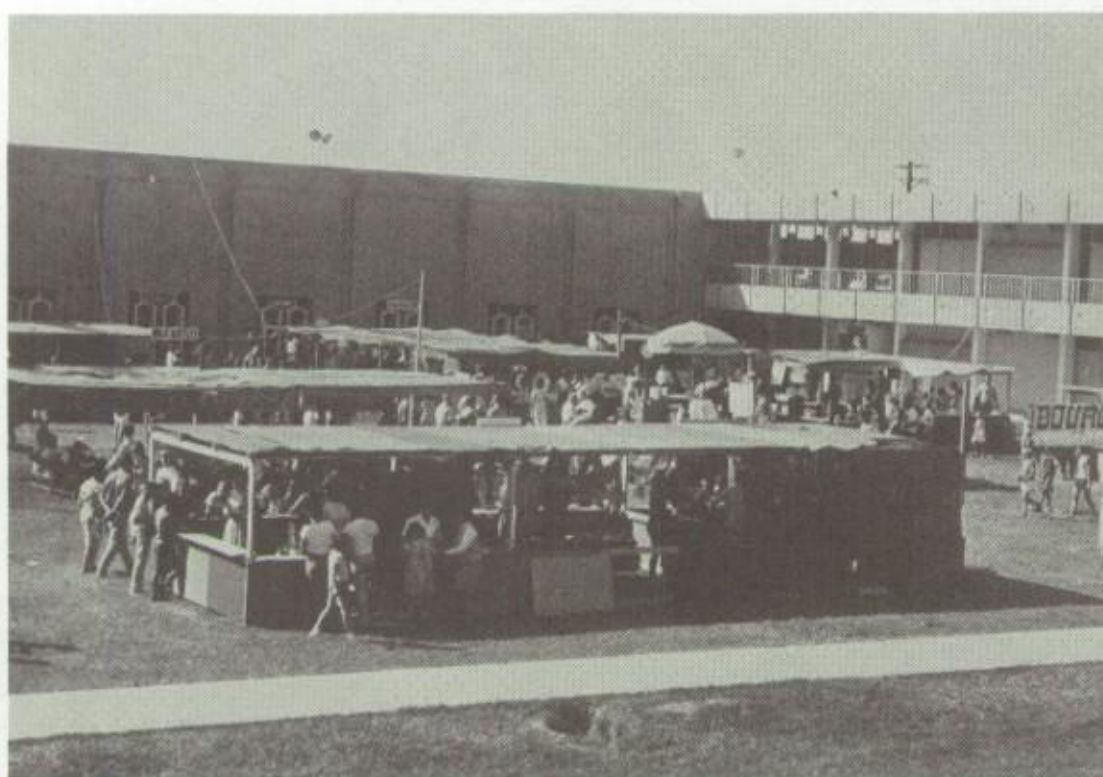

Sister Mary Benita of the Holy Humility of Mary.

BOUR FA

Bourgade's own SOUND OF MUSIC group presented at the Fair.

As always, an important event of the year is our Fair.

The theme of our Fair was

The "Almighty Heroes" of our Fair: Mr. McGunn, Mr. Hebets, Father Hillman, Mr. Daly.

GADE IR

I do say there, Gilda, another Bourgade Fair has been fun.

"Turn our lights on."

One of the features of our Fair was talent.

A family that eats together has fun together at the Fair.

THE 1966 HOME BRINGS VICTORY ANGELS AGAINST COUGARS,

The Junior-Freshman float shows the spirit of the 1966 Homecoming Game.

COMING TO THE THE 16-14!

Attendants to Queen Linda and King Dave are:
First Attendants, Paula Kuproski and Dennis Schwoegler
Second Attendants, Nancy Facio and Dick Kuhens
Third Attendants, Jacque Beach and Rudy Berumen
Fourth Attendants, Jo Ann Vokovich and Pat Carney

Queen Linda Mason and King Dave Angulo reign in regal splendor over the 1966 Homecoming.

POWDER PUFF GAME

And another touchdown for the LTK's --
Aw come on, Mr. Shilliday, have a heart.

Performing with perfect precision: THE BOURGADE ROCKETTS

Ha! Ha! You can't catch me!

Congratulations on a game well played!!!!

I use Ban -- Do you??

The senior girls prove once again that they are dainty, petite and absolutely feminine!

DRAMA: THE CRADLE SONG

As time grows closer before the performance, mass confusion reigns.

A picture is worth a thousand words.

The happy cast of a successful play!

A GIFT OF SONG

Another Bourgade first, an opera presented by the Freshman Glee Club.

Kathy, a school marm?

Sing it Judy!

Hear Ye! Hear Ye!

BOO-BOO BASKETBALL

Two bits, four bits, six bits, a dollar -- all for the faculty stand up and holler!

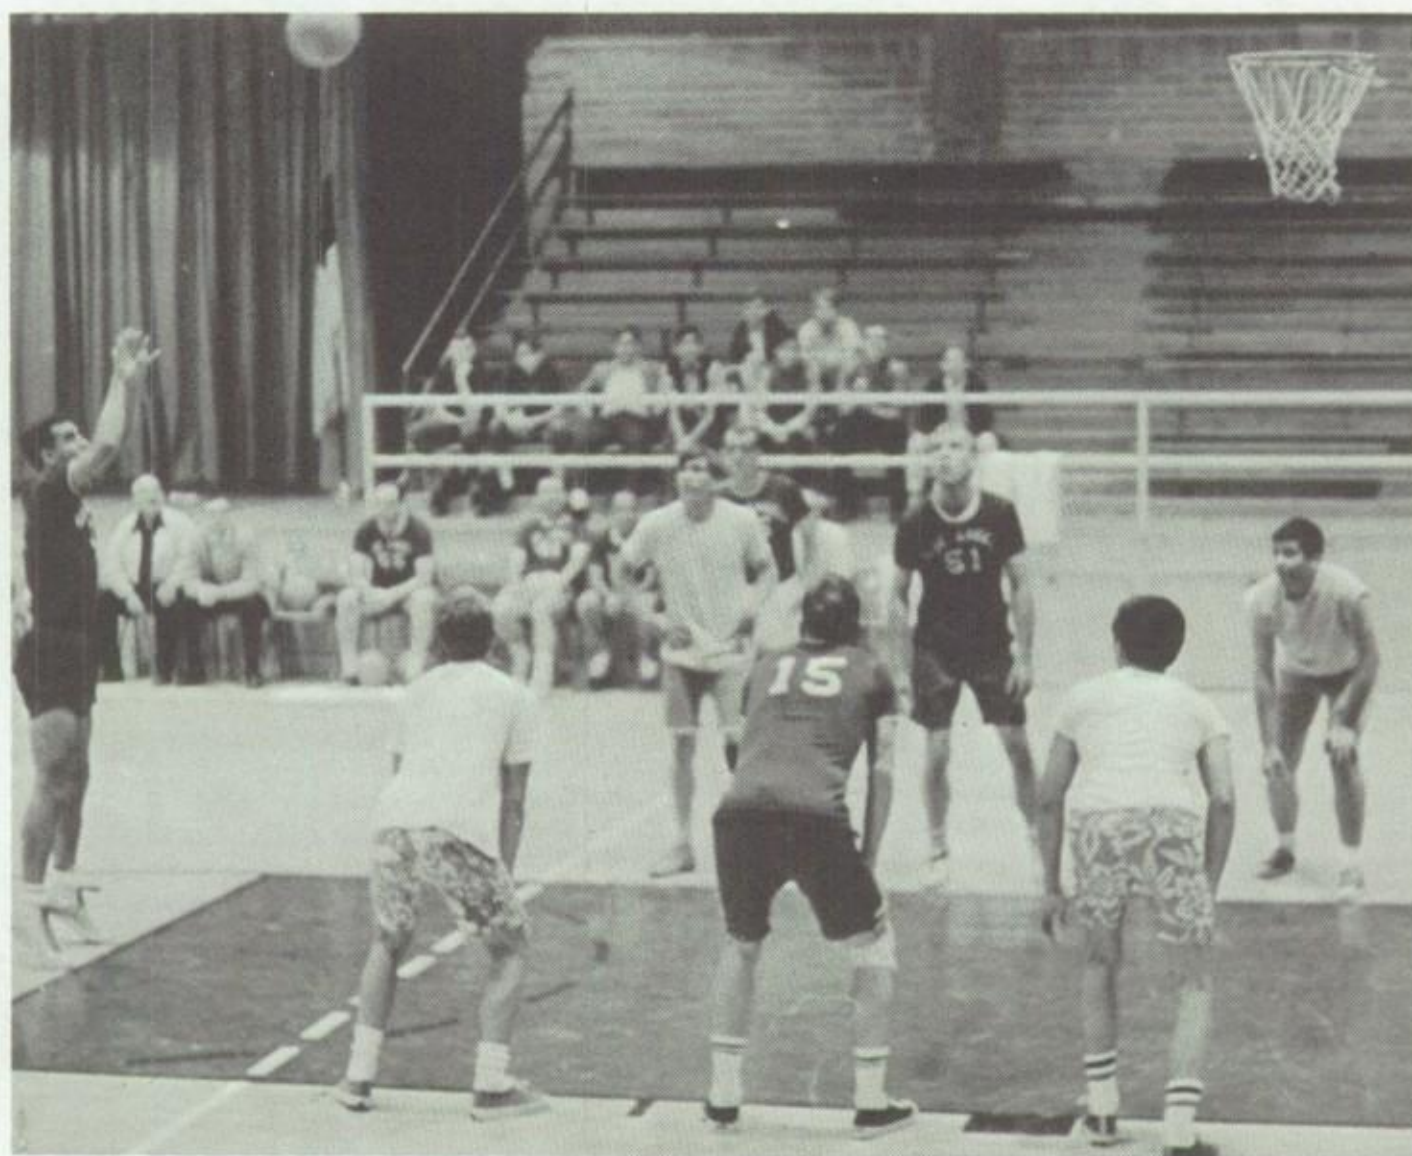

Now men, our strategy for tonight's game is ...

Hey Frank, Ladies first!!

Good luck with guarding Dave, Father!!

See that basket, see that rim, come on Father Gabe, put it in.

SENIOR SAINT PAT

Now how many did you say you wanted? And you? And you?

Is Jane accident prone, or is this a new bucket seat?

RICK'S DAY PICNIC

Just another day at Bourgade Concentration Camp, Hogan is the one with glasses.

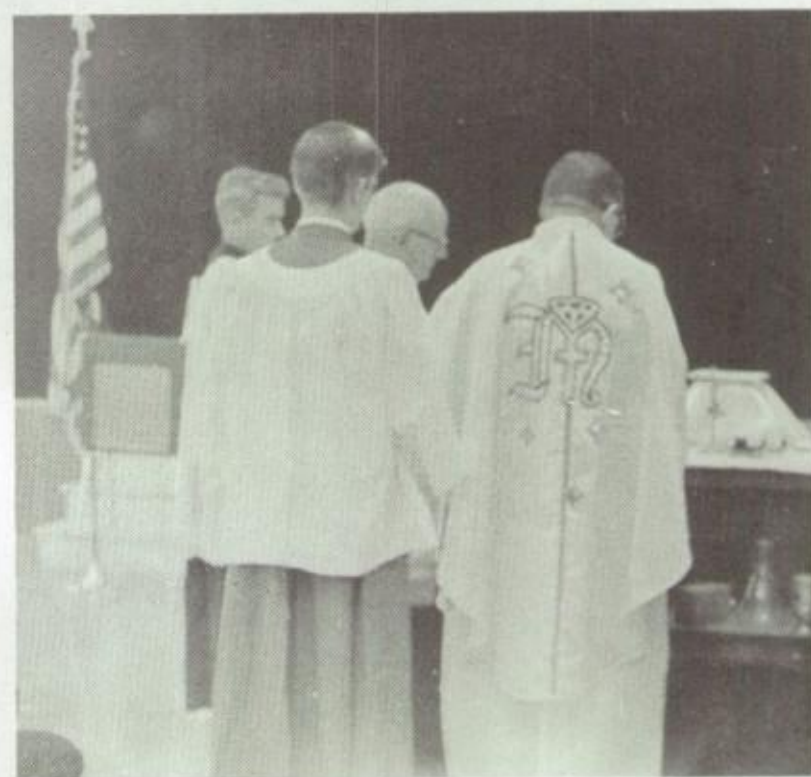

Come on, Tito, I just dare you to hit me!

And now for some of our more superior seniors!!?

Prince Tschang arranges the ceremonial procession honoring Prince Sou Chong.

Mi pleads for her Domo, Chi-Fu.

Chinese custom prevails and Prince Sou Chong acquires four new wives!

The Chinese ballet performs at court.

Even to the palace Captain Gustl pursues his lost Lisa.

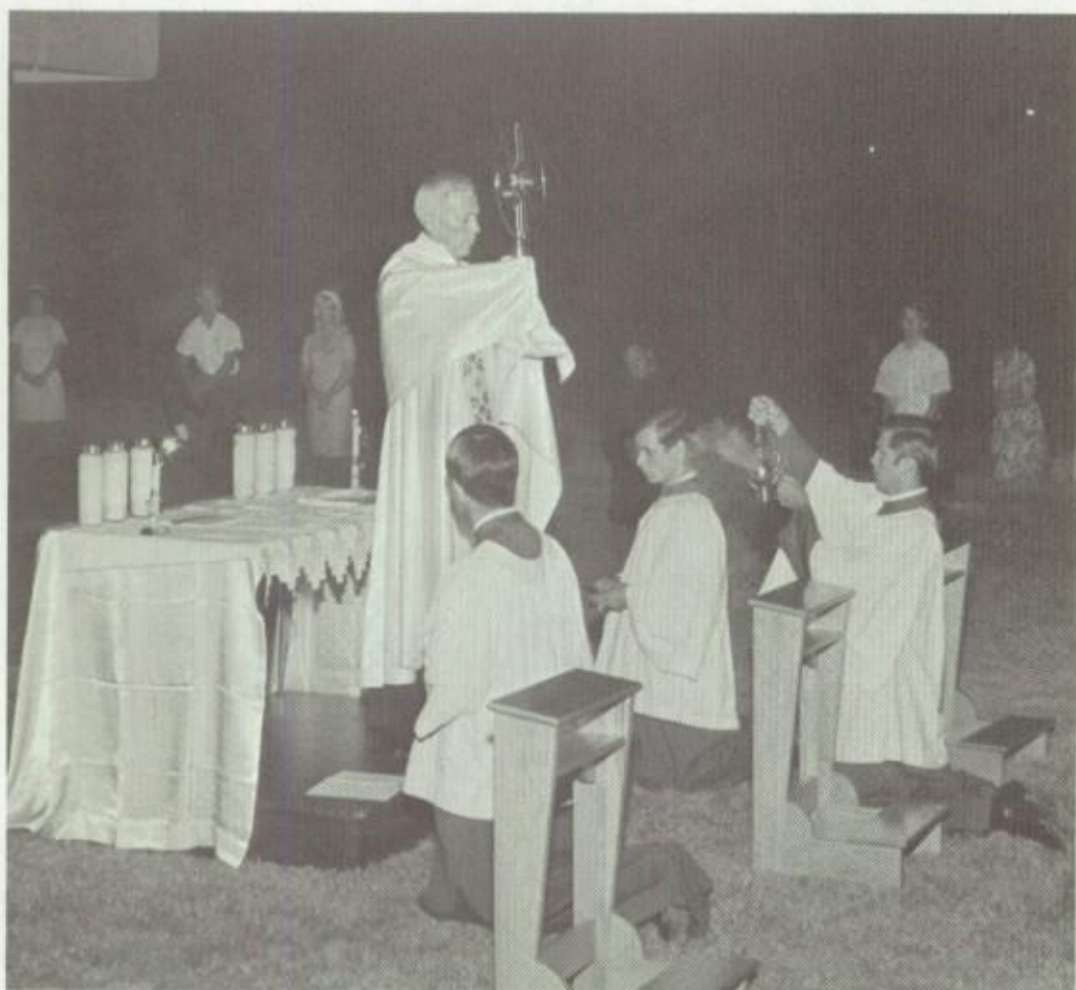

liberty from Major

Lt. Rudi has eyes for Chinese ladies, too.

Amid deep emotion Prince Sou-Chang permits Lisa and Captain Gustl to leave.

Father McDonald raises the monstrance in blessing.

MAY CROWNING

Susan lights Marc's candle in the living rosary.

Ginny McGinn crowns the Blessed Virgin as the Queen of May while Al Obis assists.

COKETAIL PARTY FOR THE 1967 PROM

Sister Marilyn pours punch for Peggy and Joe.

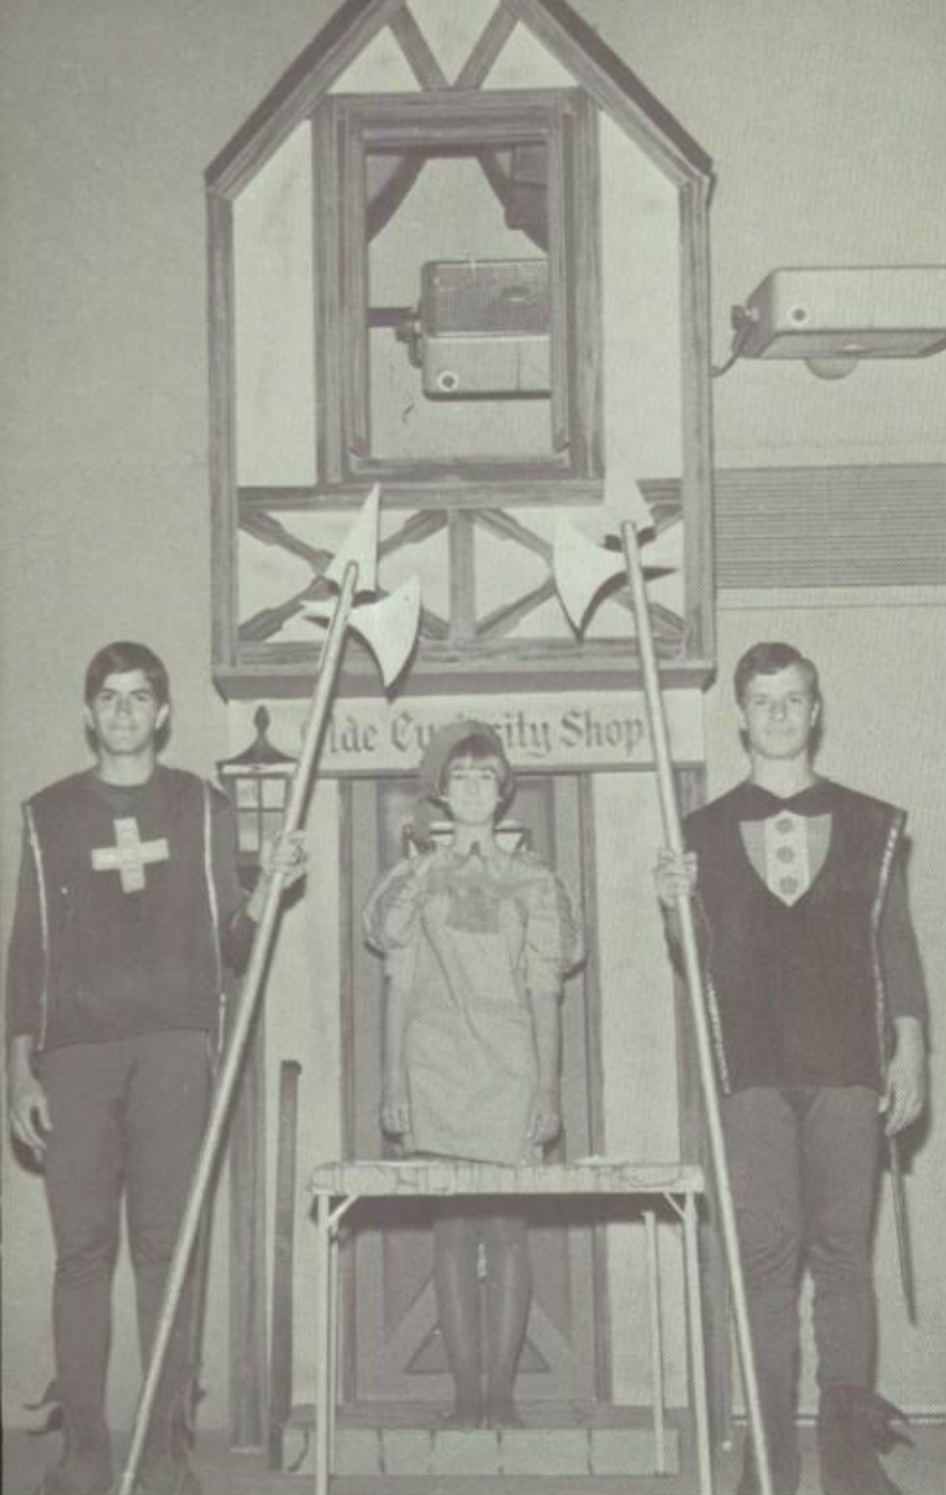

Steve, how would you like a glass of punch?

Linda Ruth and her date stop to talk to Sister Marilyn before they go to the Prom.

THE JUNIOR-SEN “AN EVENING

Joe Propati, Debbie McDonald, and Richard Mente-meyer are prepared to welcome the lords and their ladies to Camelot.

THE GRADUAT BACCALAURE

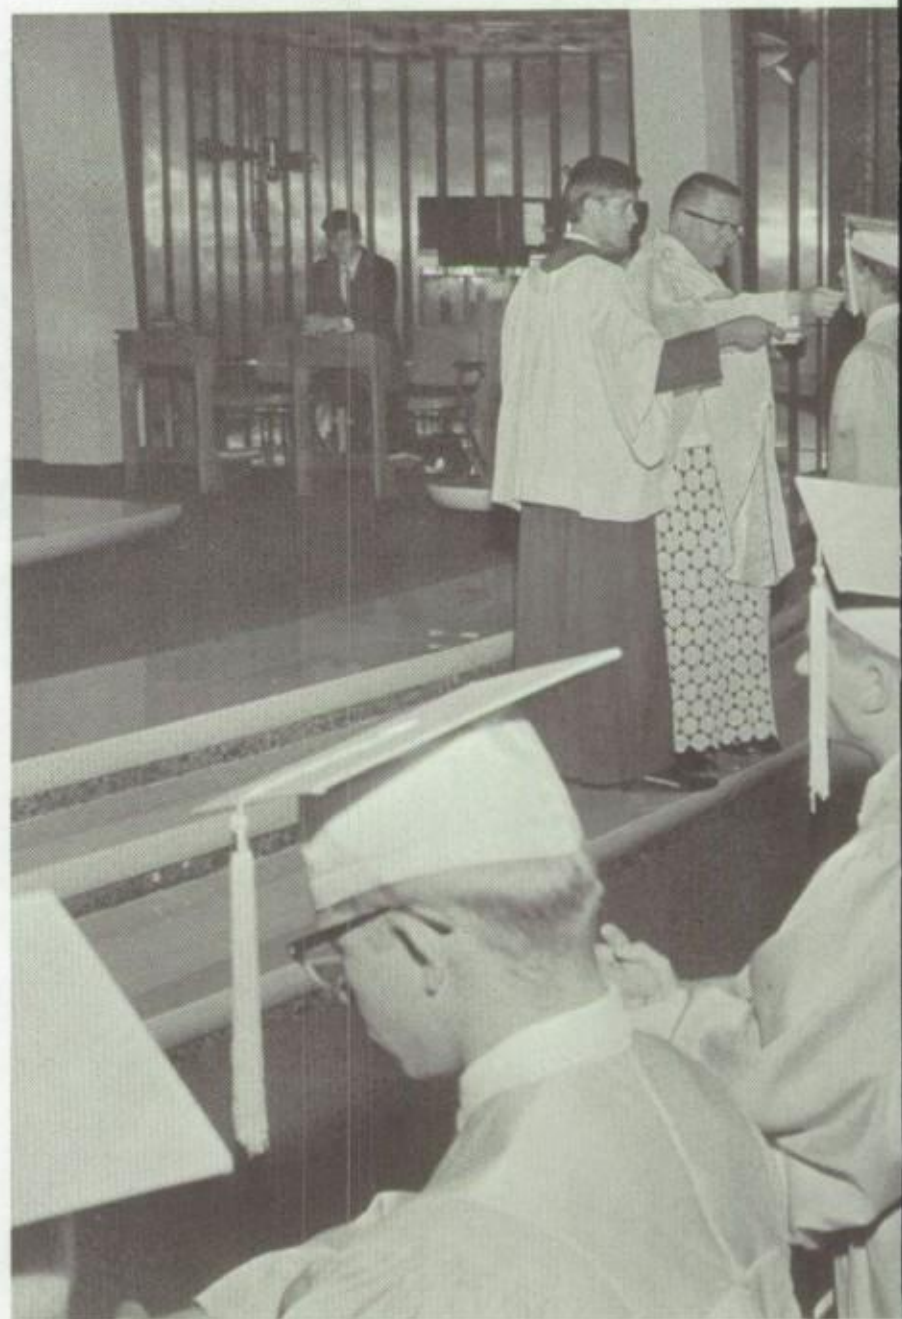

Processional to Sts. Simon and Jude Church--the last Mass they will celebrate as a class.

Father McDonald and Father Hillman approach the altar to offer Mass.

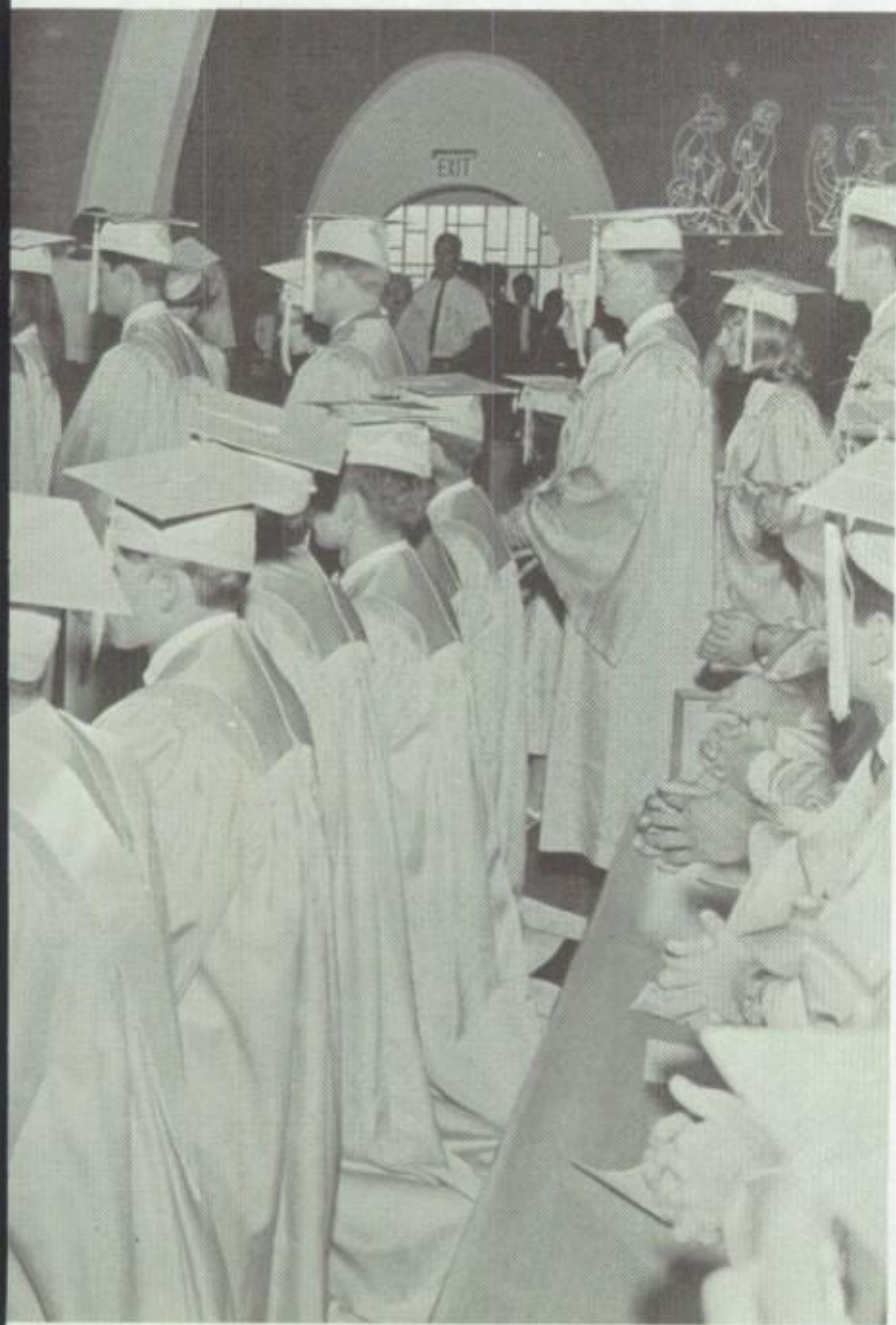

Father Noel Scott, OFM, took time from his duties at St. Mary's High School to deliver a sermon on true Christian love.

Father Hillman distributes Holy

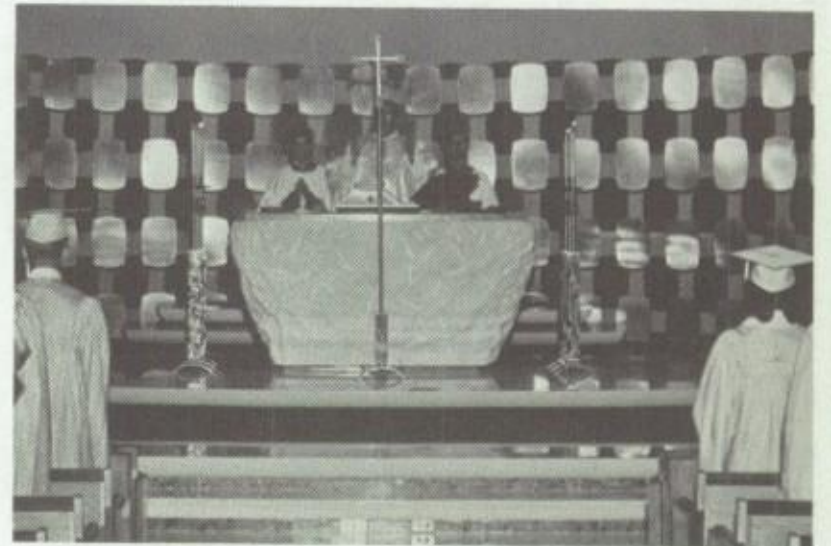

1967 ING CLASS ATE MASS

Communion to the graduating seniors.

The congregation is struck by the solemnity of the occasion.

Father bestows a blessing on the graduates and on the congregation.

Geri Sosa and Mike Thoennes lead the recessional out of church.

Paula and Linda lead the processional out to the field for the ceremony.

The faculty follows the graduates to the stage.

ATING CLASS

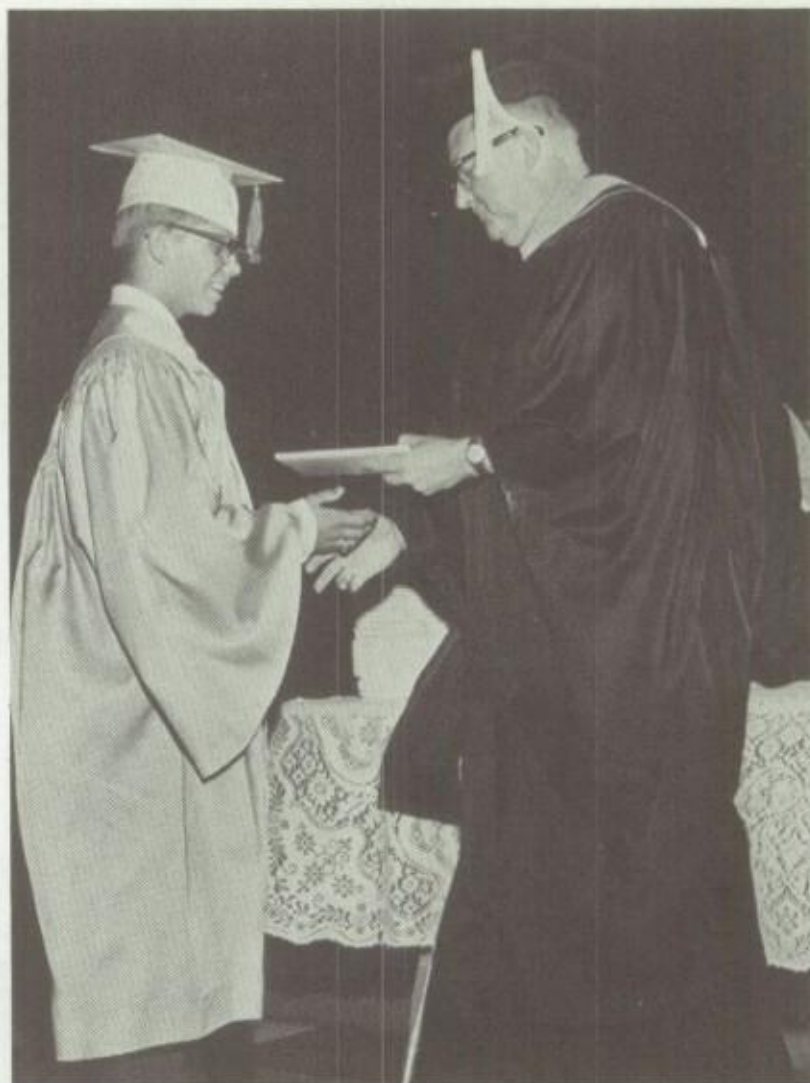

Diplomas and awards dominate the thoughts of the girl graduates. What will they make of their education?

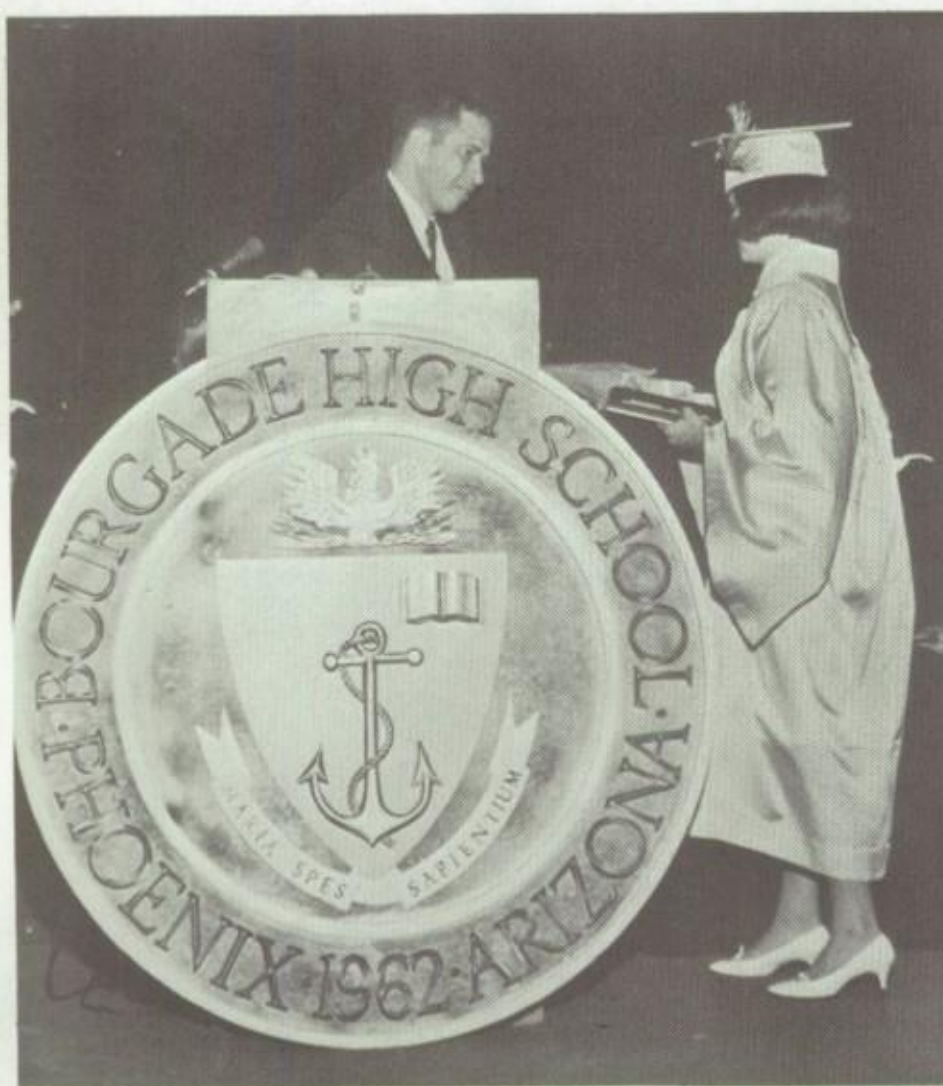

"Searching" was the theme of the commencement address; given by Dr. Nelson Haggerson, Chairman of the Secondary Education Department at Arizona State University.

Gerry smiles happily as Father hands her the diploma.

Gene says, "After four years of hard labor and forty million sheets of paper, this is what they give me?"

Carla Doty receives an award from Northwest Phoenix Hospital for outstanding service to the patients and staff in two years of work as a volunteer Candy Stripper.

Father Hillman congratulates Terry Nellis for one of his many awards. This one is the Principal's Award for over-all contribution to the school.

MOTHER'S DAY TEA

Faye Simons models her creation at the Fifth Annual Mother's Day Tea and Fashion Show.

Eileen and Ellen model their Prom dresses.

GENERAL ASSEMBLIES

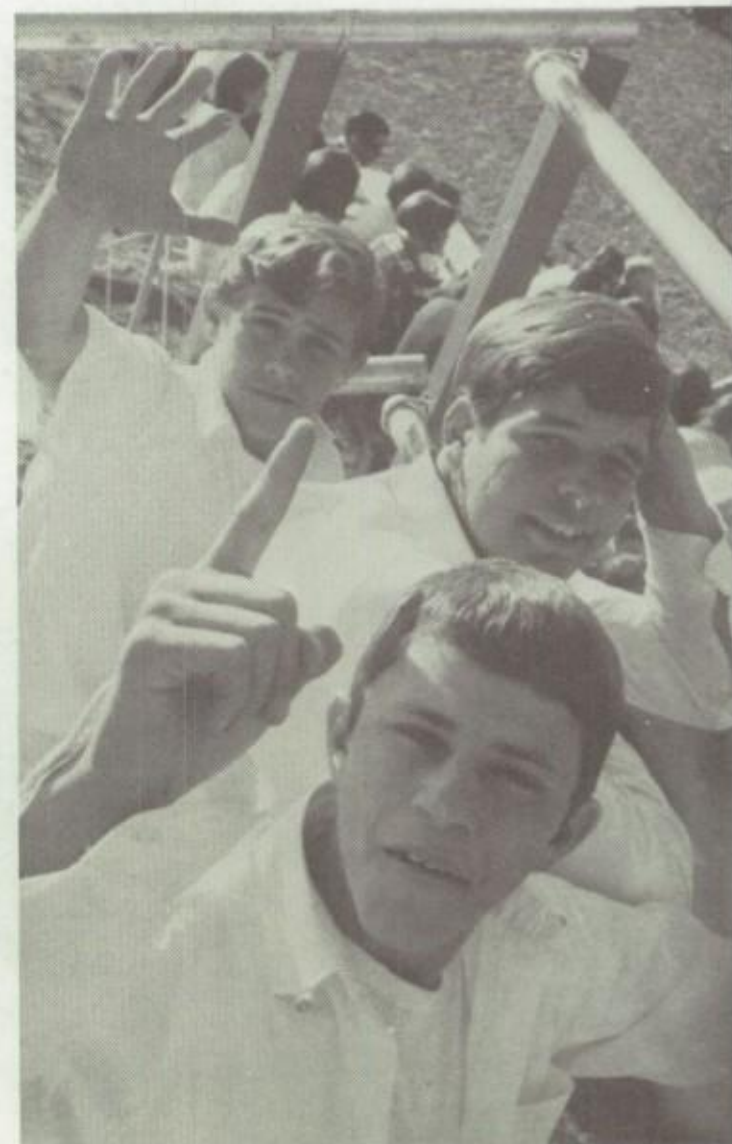

At the science assembly, Mary Keefe had what you could really call a "hair-raising experience."

Mammy, is that really how it was?

The students give a standing ovation for their Blue Angels' team.

Some of our more boisterous freshmen.

AWARDS ASSEMBLY

The 1968 Student Body Officers were installed into office at the Awards Assembly. Good Luck!

Lee Taaffe receives her award from Mother Colette.

Mother Colette gives her congratulations to these three girls on receiving their awards.

HERE AND THERE

Don, is that what you really think?

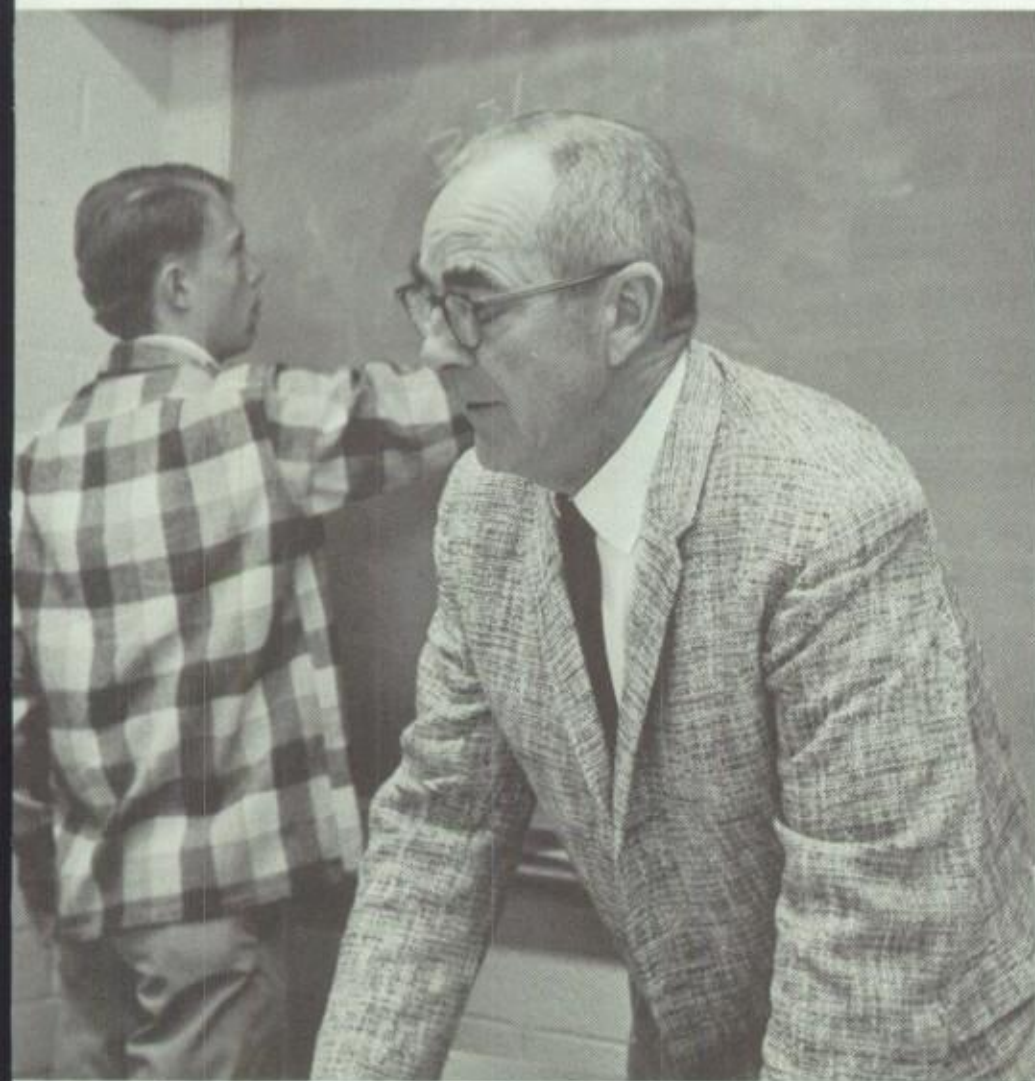

Was there a Redcoat in our midst, Father Moran?

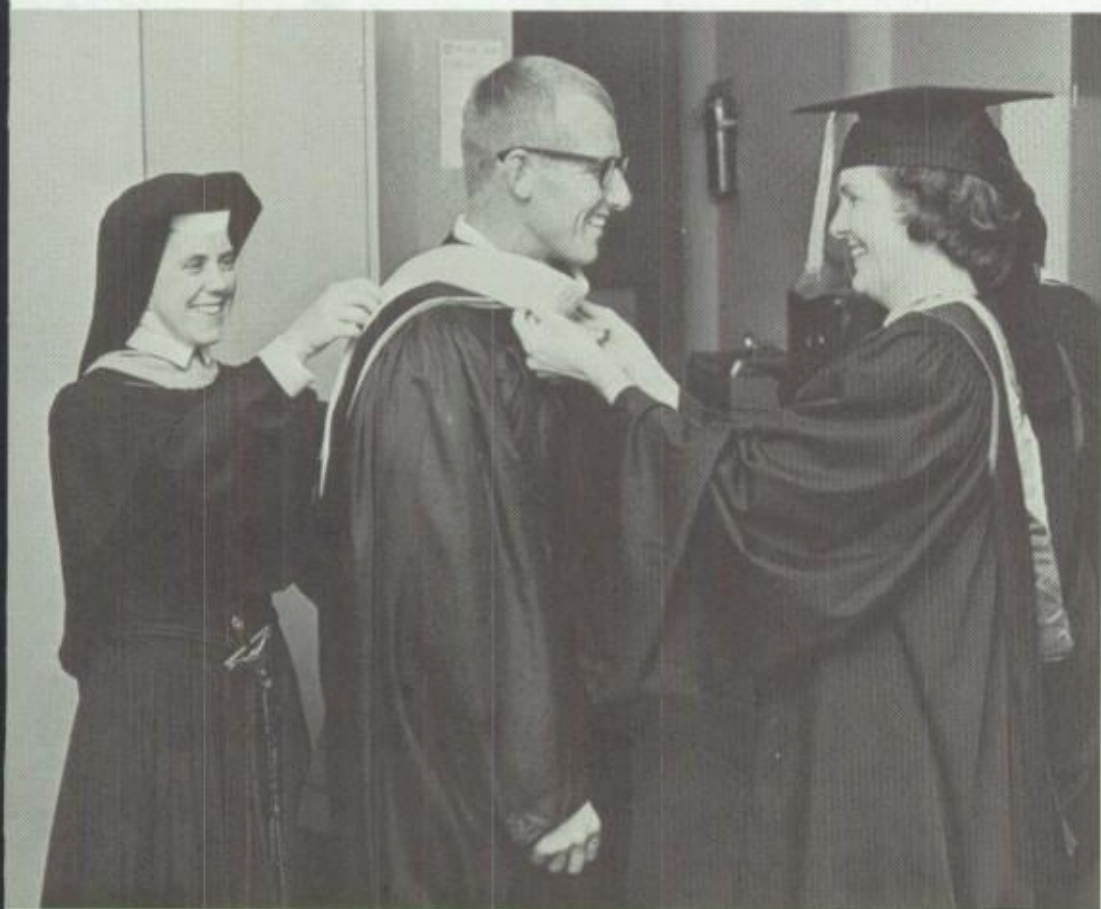

Does it hurt, Mr. Hickey?

WITH THE FACULTY

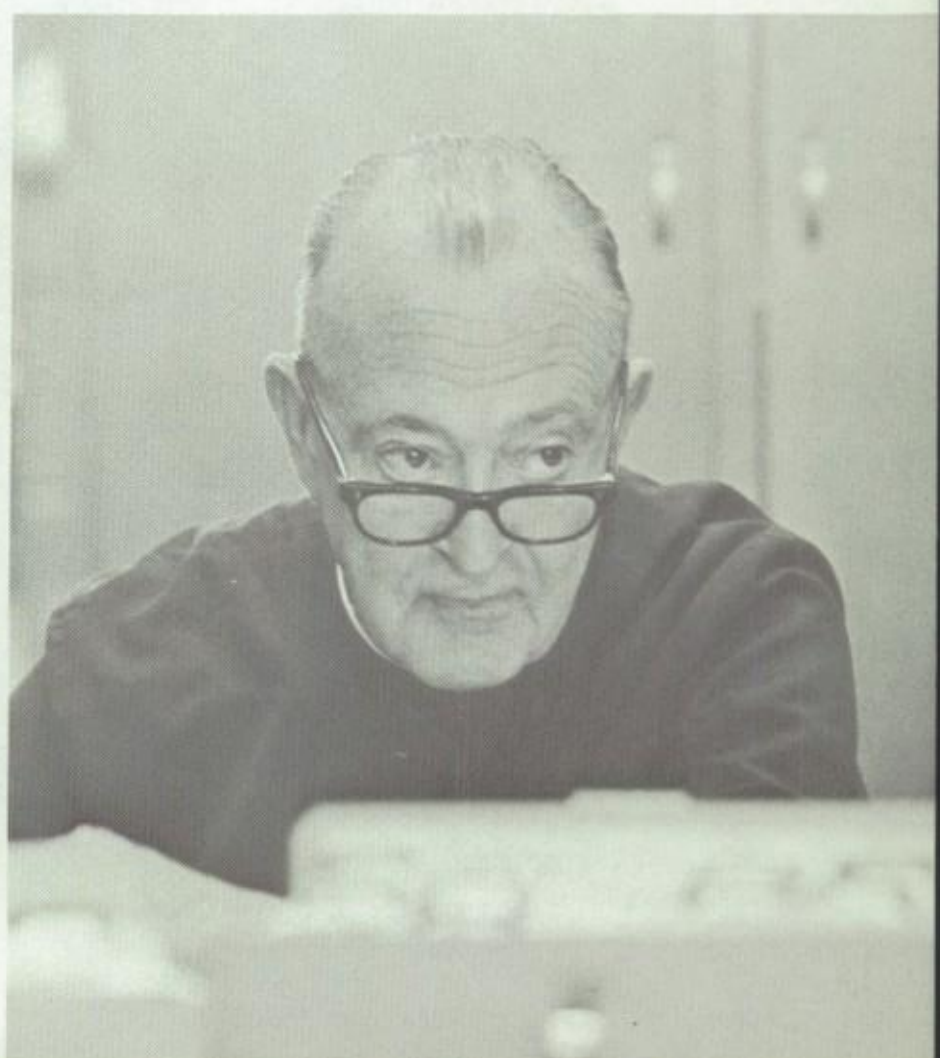

Colonel, are you sure that $2+2=5$?

Your hood is just fine, Mr. Fenton.

Having a good time, Mrs. Rose?

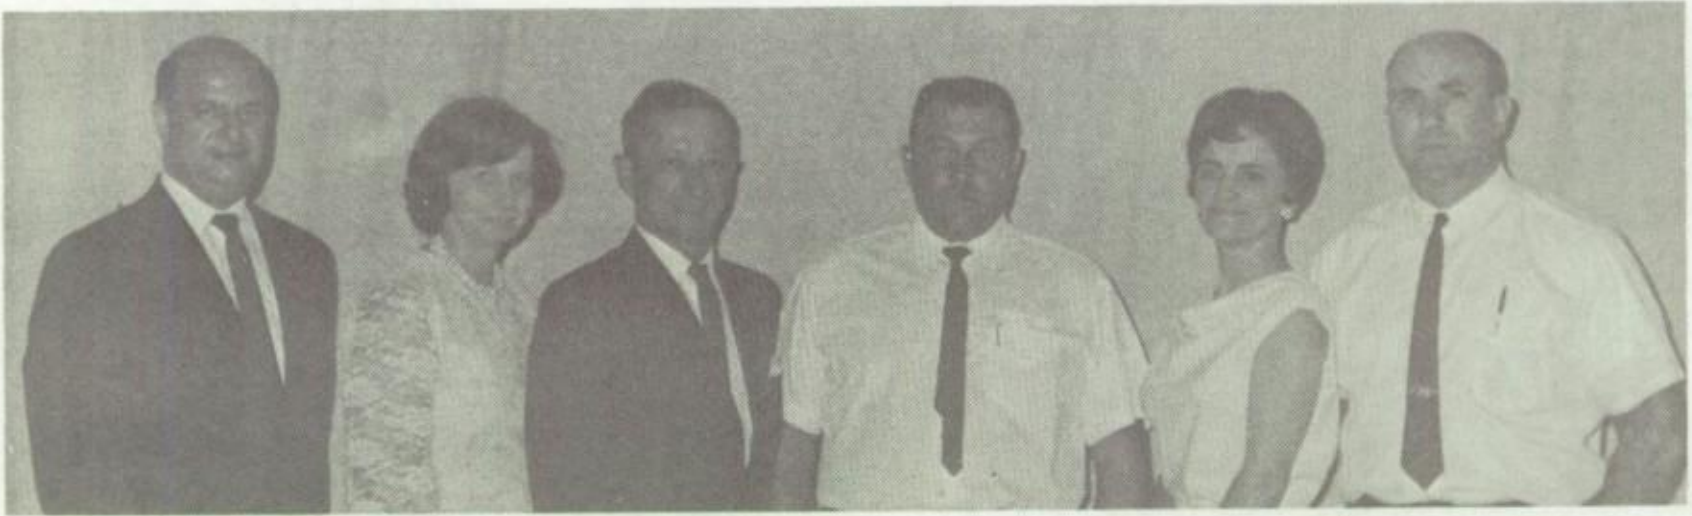

Ho hum. Now, what about those accounts?

HOME AND SCHOOL

The 1967 officers, Mr. Doles, Mrs. Burke, Mr. Beach, Mr. McGunn, Mrs. Kioski, and Mr. McGinn, relinquish their offices to the new 1968 officers.

The new 1968 officers are: Mr. Kiel, Mrs. Carney, Mr. McGunn, Mr. Cancilla, Mrs. Hafner, and Mr. Doles.

Mr. and Mrs. Waters are having a good time at one of the dances.

Our Track Season Was Off to a Running Start

Paul clears a hurdle.

What was that you were saying, Terry?

Joe may have to wrestle Mr. Fenton just to get his letter.

Gee, Sir, it was nothing.

Fake it, Jim. I'll find yours later.

Mr. Freehill awards "B's" in his relentless fight against the forces of evil.

AWARDS' NIGHT

Don't cry Jack.

Mr. Shilliday, did you cut your finger?

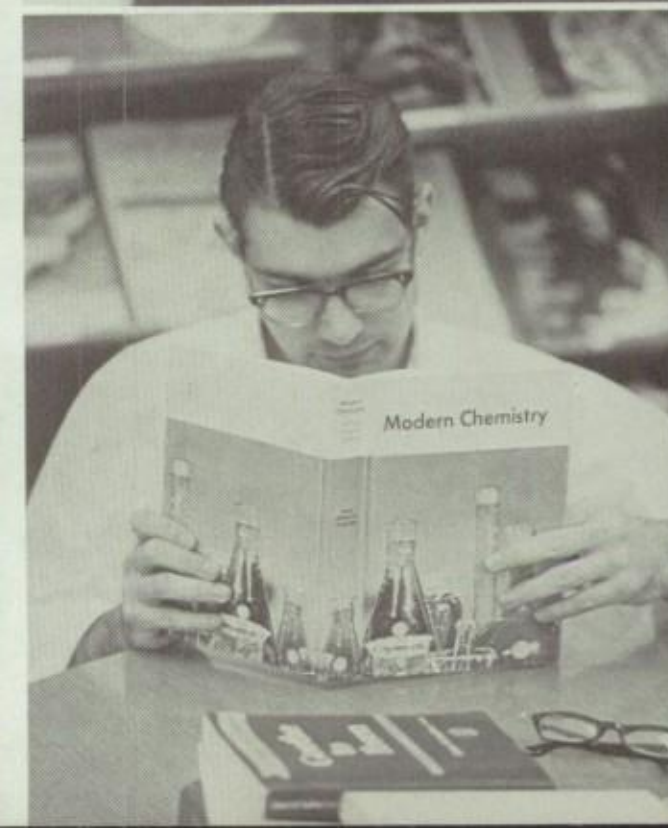

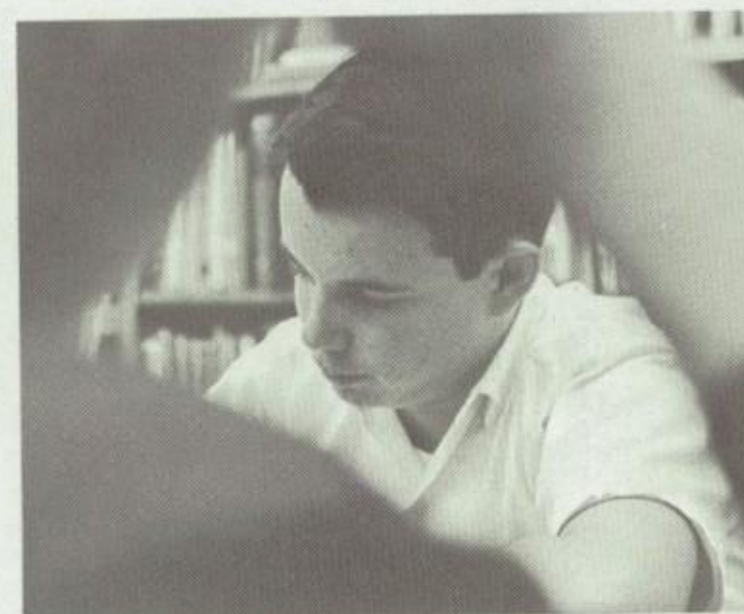

Can't I keep it, Mr. Fenton?

Is that all I get?

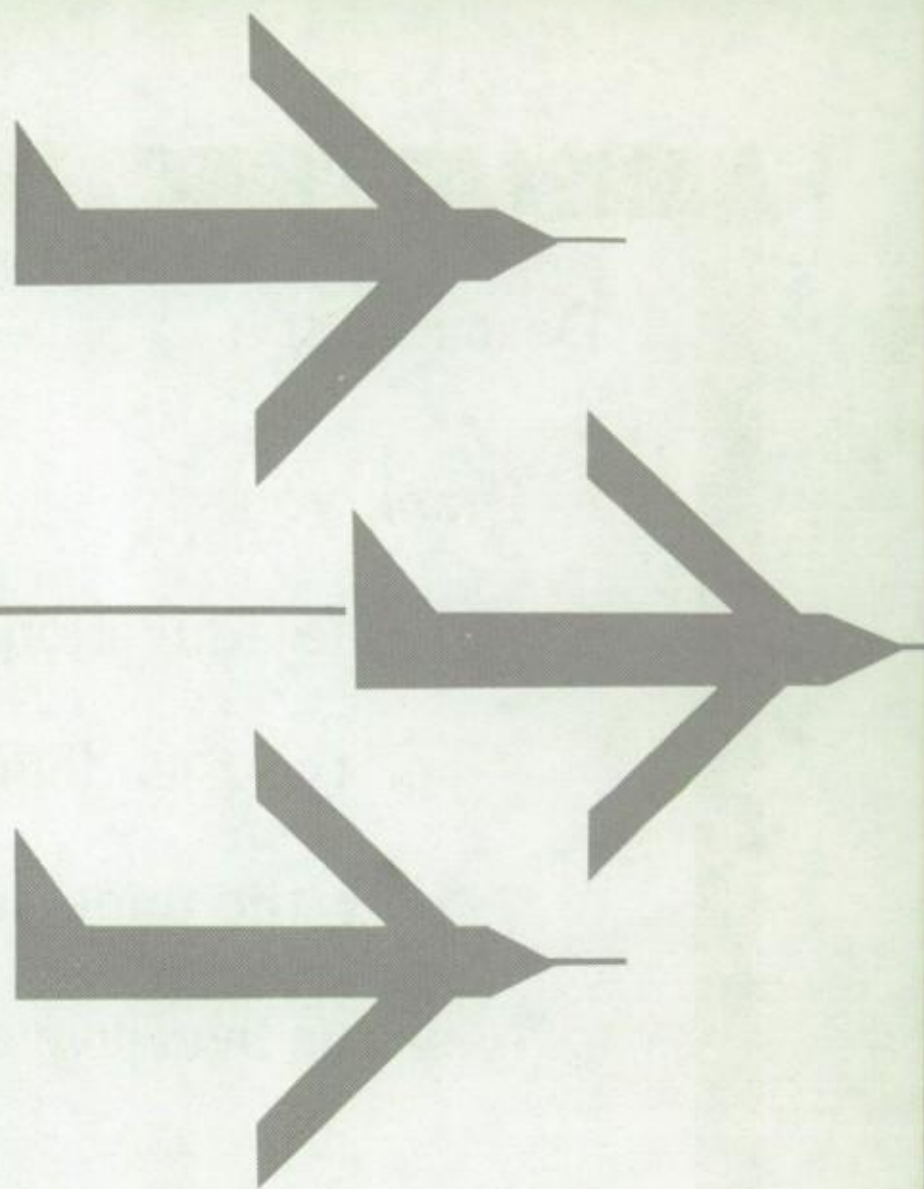

Father! How could you?

Are high school seniors ready for their own checking account?

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
thinks so!

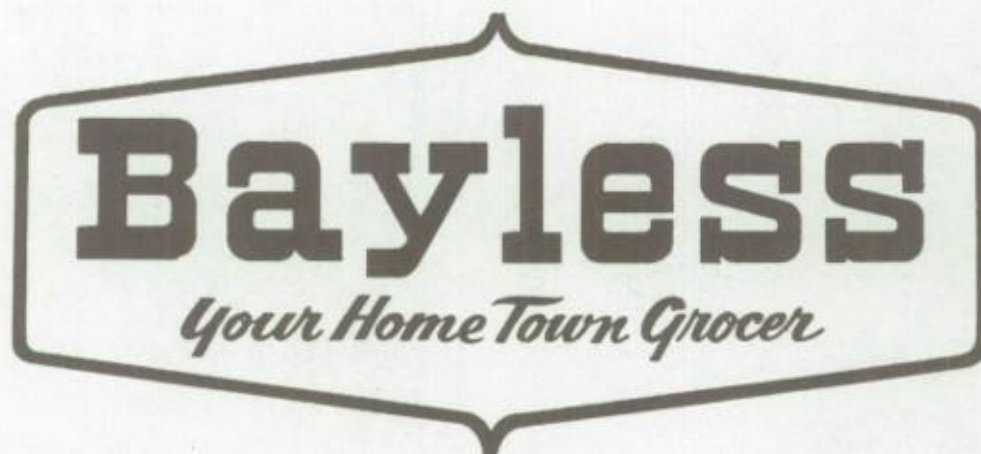

Today, high school seniors have developed a sense of responsibility that includes a desire to manage their own financial affairs.

To encourage this desire for sound money management First National suggests you inquire about an inexpensive Custom Checking Account at any office of the bank where you come first.

If you plan on attending college in Arizona, be sure to ask about First National's free college checks and checkbook covers.

LEADERS...

This year's graduates will be the leaders of tomorrow. They will have the opportunity to achieve; to work and dream — alone, or with others who share their dreams. And they will have the wise guidance of great Americans of the past.

To all these future leaders, the Salt River Project — a leader in the development and progress of Arizona — extends its warmest congratulations.

Providing a dependable supply of water and electric power for the Salt River Valley since 1903

Bourgade High School

Dear Seniors,

Now it is almost "Curtain time," and the drama of your life is about to begin anew. You have been memorizing your lines; you have been taught all the cues. Your costume is unique; it is made just for you.

But before you step in front of the floodlights, may we ask you to remember: Be real; live your part; don't merely act; forget yourself; give all to that audience; love simply, deeply, constantly. You'll then, and only then, find your joy, your fulfillment. We'll be in the wings prompting you, feeling with you, praying for you. Good-bye. God be with you.

The Bourgade Faculty

Saguaro, palms, tropical trees
God's backdrop for Bourgade High;
Desert hues and southern breeze
Mary blue, Arizona sky.
Alma Mater, ever to thee
We pledge fidelity
To think, act, and pray
In our true Blue Angels' way.
Maricopa makes the scene;
Bourgade High, we will hail our Queen!
Bourgade, we will always hail our Queen!
